HEADLINE: Transparency chief returned

BODY:

KUALA LUMPUR: Tan Sri Ramon Navaratnam was returned as Transparency International Malaysia president for another two-year term. He secured overwhelming support at its annual general meeting on Wednesday. Mohd Ali Hasan was retained as the deputy president. Two new faces filled the secretary-general and the treasurer posts. They are Datuk Paul Low and Richard Wong, respectively. Navaratnam said he would proceed with measures to create greater awareness to stamp out corruption and to educate the public on the need to combat graft.
